Many of us believe that a popular name is the most desirable choice for a person. A well-accepted study indicates that people with popular names do better in school & career.

We have also learned from psychological studies that names and personalities are interwoven entities, and that your name will have an impact on your future. Hence, selecting a good name becomes utmost important to any person who wanted to be successful in life.

This workshop will teach you on how to select "Good and Auspicious Chinese Names" by providing various methods of choosing names.
